Cathi and T

by Cathi Winkles

I arrived in Orlando on December 15 with my trusty little poodle 'T', CH MACH6 Ravendune Right on Target CDX RAE OF, to compete in our very first AKC Agility Invitational. We had worked diligently all year to rank in the top five agility Poodles in AKC (we were #2) to earn an invitation to the event. The Invitational would be held in the HUGE Orange County Convention Center and would be the location for Conformation, Obedience and Agility. There were almost 600 dogs competing in Agility with 102 in my 12" jump height.

The top five dogs in each AKC breed were represented at the Invitational, plus five All-American dogs and several foreign countries were represented as well, including Canada and Puerto Rico. All dogs competed in four preliminary rounds and the dogs with the cleanest rounds and highest cumulative scores earned a spot in the Finals. I had no aspirations of winning, just hoped we could run clean and maybe get Top Poodle for the event.

Well, lo and behold, our cumulative score landed us in the Finals in 9th position out of ten! T and I were second to run in the finals as they start with tenth and work up to first position. We ran a clean round and a nice fast time, after which, we got to sit in the "hot seat" until which time another team also ran clean but faster, then they would sit in the "hot seat." Well, we never needed to leave that chair!

Dog after dog, either had slower times or made errors, until we were in second place. I was totally stunned that we had moved up so far. Finally, the last and best dog in the finals ran the course...and missed the dog walk contact. The AKC rep waiting with me turned and said, "Cathi, you've just won the AKC Invitational, now go and take your victory lap!"

The beautiful (and heavy!) medallion around T's neck is the Top Poodle in the Invitational award sponsored by Poodle Club of America. In addition, AKC awarded T with a certificate for Top Poodle for 2010. This was the second year in a row that the 12" division at the Invitational was won by a mini poodle. It was an amazing experience and I am still on Cloud 9 from the win!
